The West Virginia Society of Radiologic Technology Student Scholarship

Purpose: The purpose of the West Virginia Society of Radiologic Technology (WVSRT) student scholarship is to provide financial assistance to students enrolled in an accredited program of radiography. The society desires to provide students with the opportunity and incentive to complete their education in an accredited radiologic science program.

Eligibility: To be eligible to apply and receive the WVSRT student scholarship, students must

- be a current ASRT member – join at www.asrt.org
- be a current WVSRT member – join at www.wvsrt.com
- be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national or U.S. permanent resident. Individuals with a visitor, student or G-series visa are NOT eligible.
- demonstrate enrollment in one of the two types of accredited entry-level radiologic science programs:
  1. WV certificate or associate's degree program: the student must currently be enrolled in the final semester of the freshman year
  2. WV bachelor's degree program: the student must currently be enrolled in the final semester of the second or first semester of the third year
- maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) or a B average, in the radiologic science core curriculum including didactic and clinical components.
- provide evidence of financial need on the application form and in the written applicant interview.

Required Documents: The following documents must be completed and returned to the scholarship committee:

1. Completed application (included in this packet). Must be electronically or black ink printed.
2. Official complete transcript of didactic and clinical grades submitted from the accredited radiologic science program. Copies and Web printouts will not be accepted.
3. Completed evaluation from the director of the radiologic science program currently attending.
A recommendation letter will not be accepted as a substitute for the evaluation form.
4. Applicant essay.

Directions for Applicant Essay: The applicant essay must be electronically or black ink printed, 500 words or less. (12-point font, double spaced)

The essay must include answers to the following questions:

1. What is your reason for entering the radiologic science profession?
2. What are your career goals?
3. What is your financial need status?
4. Why should you receive the WVSRT scholarship? Information regarding awards, activities and special circumstances etc. may be included.

Application Deadline:

1. Certificate or associate's degree programs:
  - a. student must apply by May 1st of the first year
2. Bachelor's degree programs:
  - a. student must apply by May 1st of the second or third year

Completed application for the WVSRT scholarship must be postmarked on or before May 1st. Incomplete or late applications will not be reviewed.

Award Selection and Notification Process:

In an effort to safeguard the integrity of the scholarship recipient selection process, the WVSRT president shall appoint three (3) individuals on a yearly basis to serve on the selection committee. The individuals must be members of the ASRT and WVSRT with no affiliation to any educational program and/or applicant.

The committee members will review the blinded application materials and determine the award recipient by May 30th, based on the submitted materials.

A maximum of $ 1,000.00 will be awarded annually based on availability of funds.

Applicants not granted a scholarship, may reapply the following year, if eligibility requirements are met.

The committee has the option to recommend all or part of the scholarship not be awarded.

Distribution of Award: The scholarship recipient will be notified via certified mail after May 30th. The award will be distributed over a 2-semester time frame. One half of the award will be given the first semester following notification. If the student maintains eligibility requirements, the second half of the award will be given the second semester following notification. It is the student's responsibility to request enrollment status and GPA be sent to the committee by his/her program director and to submit current ASRT and WVSRT membership status to receive the second half of the award.

Application Submission Process:

1. Complete all areas of the application. Zero points will be awarded for each blank section. If your answer is zero, write in "0" rather than leave it blank.
2. Submit one (1) copy of the required document (application, official transcript, evaluation form and essay) provided in this packet. All information must be postmarked by May 1st.
If the transcript or evaluation form is sent separately, you are responsible for ensuring it is postmarked by May 1st.
3. Only one (1) evaluation and one (1) essay will be reviewed per applicant.
4. Do not submit additional documents, they will not be reviewed.
5. If the required documents are not postmarked by May 1st, the applicant will be disqualified.
